

In every professional journey, key milestones shape one's career from beginning to end. In today's technologically advanced era, employees who are well-versed in digital tools expect Human Resources (HR) to support them during these crucial moments. Whether starting a new job, relocating, getting job promotions, going on pregnancy leave, or changing Insurance, employees seek the same level of digital convenience and helpful guidance they experience in other aspects of their lives.

An HR function empowered by digital transformation benefits you in numerous ways:

Engage and retain highly skilled & valuable talents.

Employees anticipate exceptional experiences that align with and surpass the experiences pledged to customers.

Enhance and optimize the efficiency of platforms.

Utilize top-notch solutions to construct a cohesive system that delivers consistency and links to all organizational stakeholders, providing a comprehensive 360-degree approach.

Accelerate and improve service delivery.

Maximize effectiveness and unleash potential using machine learning, smart automation & advanced analytics.

An all-encompassing digital solution that nurtures and evolves alongside your journey

Nihilent and ServiceNow provide a cutting-edge digital employee experience tailored to the modern working landscape of the 21st century. The innovative solution through ServiceNow HRSD is hybrid nature, proactive approach, and intuitive design that integrates well with your business. Putting your employees' needs at the forefront and prioritizing impactful moments empowers HR to assume a leadership role, taking ownership of the entire process and delivering experiences that surpass expectations.

By harnessing the power of digital technology, machine learning, and artificial intelligence, the ServiceNow platform enables individuals to enhance their productivity, efficiency, and overall engagement in the workplace. Seamless integration with advanced technologies paves the way for a more empowered workforce with the necessary tools to thrive in today's digital era.

A Humanizing Design

Nihilent Design Thinkers embraces a humanizing approach to empower HR departments. The ServiceNow innovative platform enhances the employee experience, focusing on significant moments throughout each individual's work lifecycle.

Build with Humanizing approach.

At Nihilent, we have honed our expertise in Design Thinking, mastering the art of creating innovative solutions. Our approach revolves around putting humans at the core of everything we do. By seamlessly integrating the HR experience with other vital functions within organizations, such as Admin, Finance, Facilities, and IT, we ensure a cohesive and unified experience across platforms and systems. Moreover, we enhance the building process by incorporating personalized and employee-centric data points, making our solutions more tailored and impactful.

Humanizing Agile Delivery

Nihilent's Human-centric Agility empowers you to prioritize meaningful stories and moments. Our approach leverages agile deployment methods to achieve tangible results, while fostering more impactful experiences swiftly. By deploying a dedicated Experience Capability team, we enable you to effectively manage and lead various aspects of HR platforms, processes, and policies. It includes the employee lifecycle catalog, performance metrics, and much more.

How Nihilent Does It?

Our mission is to infuse humanity into technology, elevating experiences and empowering you to adapt to the changing demands of the workforce. Therefore, we prioritize enhancing the crucial moments that are most significant for employees throughout their professional journeys.

Stephanie tied the knot with a man from the bustling city of New York. Surprisingly, she was back at work only two weeks after her Marriage. Thanks to ServiceNow's digital concierge, she smoothly navigated the essentials of her Marriage leave, such as adequately documenting her time off and understanding the relevant policies. Additionally, Stephanie was equipped with a toolkit comprising out-of-office templates and proactive reminders. These resources enabled her to stay in touch with a broad range of services during her leave, ensuring she remained connected to her work colleagues. As a result, Stephanie could enjoy quality time with her family, making her leave more productive and meaningful.

Jason, who has dedicated over two decades to a company, recently achieved a significant milestone in his career as he ascended to the esteemed position of Vice President of Product Development. His professional journey involves spearheading the creation of innovative products and services while leading a diverse multinational team. Thanks to ServiceNow, Jason's work experience has been remarkably enhanced, enabling him to navigate through four countries seamlessly. This opportunity has nurtured his passion for travel and allowed him to extend his guidance to fresh recruits in these emerging markets. Leveraging the ServiceNow platform, Jason effortlessly collaborates with colleagues across the globe, ensuring seamless connectivity and facilitating efficient completion of tasks, regardless of his location.
